Dr Chithra Madhavan

A noted historian and scholar of temple architecture, sculpture and inscriptions, Chithra is the recipient of two post-doctoral fellowships, and author of seven books and several research papers. A guest lecturer at top institutions in India and abroad, including Kalakshetra and IITs, she frequently delivers lectures on art, architecture and allied subjects on various heritage sites. Chithra also curates heritage tours to these sites.

Dr Padma Sugavanam

A Carnatic vocalist and gold-medalist PhD in Sanskrit and musicology, Padma's accomplishments include a rare double-promotion A-grade (AIR), and Outstanding Vocalist award at the Music Academy. Padma is also a faculty with a California - based University, and conceptualized the 'In Harmony' series as an innovative blend of travel and music – whose previous edition was in breathtaking Bali (Indonesia).

Shreya Devnath

A disciple of the legendary Sri Lalgudi Jayaraman, Shreya is a well-established solo violinist, accompanist, and performer for instrumental and dance collaborations. A gold medalist Masters' holder in Economics, she is also a talented painter, poet, short story writer, and awardee of the RK Narayan Award for Creative Excellence. Shreya loves to combine music and travel, taking music to unconventional settings.

R Ramkumar

A well-known mridangam exponent, Ramkumar trains with the legendary Umayalpuram Dr. K. Sivaraman. A gold medalist in engineering recognized among top 1% alumni of the prestigious Indian School of Business, he has received several awards in music. After many years in the corporate world, Ramkumar now focuses on performances, writes for reputed arts magazines, and pursues fascinating projects and ideas around music.
